Three hundred Oregonians just returned from the fifth anniversary “Flight for Freedom” – which, of course, started as a way to show local support for the Big Apple after 9/11 and maybe do a little shopping as well. ... Nick Fish, co-chairman of the event, says a highlight of the weekend was a performance of the musical “Shout!” starring homegrown 21-year-old singer and dancer Lauren Huss, until then relegated to the role of understudy. “A star is in the making,” Fish assures me.
